Be With Them Yet.

"Be with them yet, be with them yet. Let them forget—let them forget! These new rich who would be making bonnet of 'Ancestress'! When fact, there was 'no tree' at all. If memory serves me, I recall. But just a poor old worthless dad. Who'd drink and then be glad. While on the sign the letter shows. 'Here's where you come to get old clothes.'"

Now "clothes is clothes," and nothing more—

It's no disgrace this being poor—The thing that's so aloud and weak is just to see some still break. Forever shaming what "she" felt. 'Tis just enough to make one faint. But old if she just plain would be. A goodly thing without the "dope." But old if she just plain would be. And not rush in "Society!"

For while our money's gone indeed. This "could be" only "forget" the seed. From where she sprung;

And an with ever prating tongue. She speaks of "friends and family ties."

And doesn't know, we know it lies—And so I say, "Be with them yet. Let them forget—let them forget!"

Mrs. Gibson Entertains.

A very elaborate and beautiful entertainment of the week was the party given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gibson to their guests, Mrs. Schoeber, Mr. MacKee, and Mr. Hyndman, of Cincinnati.

The handsome home which is especially suited to entertaining, was never more attractive than on this occasion when the large halls and parlor were lavishly decorated with flowers, white and green and with the emblems of St. Patrick. The delicious lunch of salads and loaves was served by a Cincinnati caterer and carried out the idea of the day, with the little hats, Shamrock leaves, flags and pipes.

Several handsome prizes were given, the gentleman's lone hand being won by Dr. Busley and the ladies, by Mrs. Samuel Rice. Mrs. Bates Shackleford won the ladies first prize, a Sheffield basket filled with green carnations, and Mr. MacKee, of Cincinnati, the gentleman's, a pair of Colossus cuff buttons. The booty went to Mr. James Crutcher.

Mrs. Gibson was assisted in entertaining by Miss Bessie Miller and Miss Julia Higgins and Miss Marian Schoeber and Misses Maria and Elizabeth Gibson, the last named young ladies presenting the lone hand prizes which were small hats, filled with bonbons for ladies and pipes for the gentlemen.

About seventy guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Gibson's hospitality.

Mr. M. S. Cadden Weds.

Mr. Cadden is the capable editor of the Estill Tribune. With other members of the newspaper fraternity we extend congratulations.

All plans for the day were perfected while Mrs. Turley was out in town shopping, and on her return she was greeted by a number of her old friends, as well as a beautifully prepared luncheon of chicken salad, potato chips, croquettes, olives, hot rolls, and coffee.

Mrs. Douglas had left nothing undone to make the day a happy one, and had written to Mrs. Bruce to be with her mother at this time.

In the afternoon Rook was enjoyed and the guests departed at four with many expressions of appreciation to the hostess.

DEATHS.

Mrs. J. S. Haselden died at her home in Bryansville, Garrard county, at six o'clock Monday evening.

Deceased was about sixty years of age and was a splendid woman. The burial occurred at Lancaster at noon Wednesday. She is survived by her husband and three step-sons, Messrs. Raymond, Samuel and Joe S. Haselden, of Lancaster.

News was received by relatives in this county a few days since of the death of Mr. Daniel Moore at his home in Guthrie, Okla. Deceased was a native of Estill county, but went West many years ago and had been very successful. He was about 55 years of age and a Civil War veteran, serving in the Union Army. He was a former post master of Guthrie and had acquired a great deal of land in Oklahoma and was quite wealthy at the time of his death. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. Gordon Taylor, of this city, and has many other relatives in this and Estill county. A large family survives.

Mr. Ed Davis, a prominent farmer and splendid citizen, died at his home in the Brookstown neighborhood last Sunday night after an illness of Bright's disease. Deceased was forty-nine years of age and had been twice married. His first wife was a Miss Masters, daughter of Woodson Masters, and died about eight years ago. His second wife was a Mrs. McGuire, who together with five sons and two daughters survive. The bereaved family has the sympathy of many friends. Mr. Davis was an exemplary citizen and numbered his friends by his acquaintances. His death has caused much sorrow in the community in which he lived. Funeral services were held at the Brookstown Christian church Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, conducted by Rev. O. J. Young, of this city, thence the burial in the Richmond cemetery.

On Monday one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Madison county passed through the shadowy vale of death. Mr. H. C. Cochran aged 84 years, died from the infirmities of old age at his home on Silver Creek, near Whites Station, thus bringing to a close a long and useful life. Mr. Cochran had practically spent his life in Madison county and was the highest type of citizen. He was beloved by all who knew him and his demise has caused much sorrow in the community. Funeral services were conducted at his late home Tuesday morning, after which the remains were laid to rest in the old Cochran burying ground near Whites Station, in the presence of many friends.

Mrs. Roland Cain died at her home at Bybee Friday, March 9, after a long and painful illness. She was a member of the Methodist church at that place and lived a most exemplary life. Her husband and two small children survive her.

FOR JAILER.

Mr. N. B. Jones, formerly a jailer of this county, has consented to make the race for the office of jailer subject to the action of the Democratic party at its August primary, 1917.

Mr. Jones has been urged by his numerous friends for some time to announce himself for this office and has had the matter under consideration. The pressure was so great that he has finally consented to run. He is well remembered for his many acts of kindness to the prisoners while in the office before and is a formidable candidate. The man that beats Mr. Jones, will perhaps know that Jones is a runner from away back. When the boys in the hills and hollows hear that their old friend has consented to make the race, they will enthrall for him and will know exactly how to mark the ballot for him.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The marriage license docket so far in March has been very light. However, with the advent of Spring, sunshine and flowers, Dan Cupid, no doubt, will get busy and there will be an influx for the documents which give the love sick again the right to establish a home according to his own sweet ideas. County Clerk Terrell and deputies will always give such patrons a cordial greeting. Following is the list of licenses issued for March to date:

Mr. Reuben Hollingsworth, aged 18, and Miss Olivia Barrett, aged 16, both of Madison county.

Mr. Theodore Morris McClure, 44 years of age and a widower, and Miss Nancy Ella McWhorter, aged 31, of the Berea neighborhood.

GRANDMA JOINS CHILDREN'S PLAY

She Used to Be Cross De'ora Ten as Chaired Her Up.

CAN WALK UP STAIRS NOW

"My daughters and grandchildren think I'm a different woman. I am. I even get down on the floor and romp with the little ones. A short time ago I was so cross I wasn't company for anyone."

This is the debate that Mrs. H. E. Hill, 3531 West 3rd St., Cleveland paid to Tangle.

"There was a time when I wouldn't walk up to the corner store without fear I wouldn't be able to get back alone," she said. "But that time has passed—thanks to Tangle. I was run-down for years and couldn't do my housework. I had to leave most of the work to my two daughters. Last winter was the worst and I was told that unless I got better I would not have long to live."

Lived In Damp Quarters.

"Our house, too, might have made my condition worse. For it was on low ground and was a true damp. That made me worse. Before taking Tangle I couldn't walk up and down the stairs. I had to sleep downstairs. I can get up without any help now."

"My back used to hurt me so bad that I couldn't stoop over. Now I can get down and mop the floors."

Was All Run Down.

"My stomach gave me no end of trouble. No matter what I ate, was formed and I had a heavy, bloated feeling. I was nervous, and even the noise made by my two little grandchildren in their play annoyed me."

"I surely am thankful for what Tangle has done for me. And I feel so happy over it that I have already told several friends about the results it brings."

Get Tangle today if you are not feeling right. Delay in health matters is dangerous.
